

Chapman University Chapman University Digital Commons

Henri Temianka Correspondence

Henri Temianka Archives

1960

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (shear)

Esther Shear

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Shear, Esther, "Henri Temianka Correspondence; (shear)" (1960). Henri Temianka Correspondence. 1835.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/temianka_correspondence/1835

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Henri Temianka Archives at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Henri Temianka Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

Henri Temianka Correspondence; (shear)

Keywords

Henri Temianka, Esther Shear, culture, virtuosity in musical performance, violinist, chamber music, camaraderie, Walter L. Shear, husband, wife

Dr. and Mrs. Walter L. Shear

Dear Mr. Semianka,

It is impossible for me to express to you the extent of my gratitude for the time and trouble you have taken with a struggling young violinist. You have been exceedingly kind and generous, and a source of inspiration for not only me, but for all the string players and young musicians at Kansas State College.

Were there more musicians as encouraging and creative as you, the situation of the string player in this country would not be so acute.

Not only do I intend to do my best to apply your valuable suggestions to my own playing, but also to pass them on to my students.

I have never seen a master class handled so beautifully and graciously. Again, thank you so much for your help, the lunch, and the ticket to the concert where again I enjoyed your playing so immensely.

Sincerely,
I am sorry to have kept Esther Shear
you up so late Monday night.

[[Nick Dante 7/2/18]]

[[Henri Temianka Correspondence
Esther Shear
Letter #1]]

[[Page 1 – Letter]]

[[text: Dr. and Mrs. Walter L. Shear]]

[[Page 2 – Letter]]

Dear Mr. Temianka,

It is impossible for me to express to you the extent of my gratitude for the time and trouble you have taken with a struggling young violinist. You have been exceedingly kind and generous, and a source of inspiration for not only me, but for all the string players and young musicians at Kansas State College. Were there more musicians as encouraging and creative as you, the situation of the string player in this country would not be so acute.

[[Page 3 – Letter]]

Not only do I intend to do my best to apply your valuable suggestions to my own playing but also to pass them on to my students.

I have never seen a master class handled so beautifully and graciously. Again, thank you so much for your help, the lunch, and the ticket to the concert where again I enjoyed your playing so immensely.

Sincerely,

I am sorry to have kept Esther Shear
you up so late Monday night.